ST. JEROME'S CHURCH DEDICATION TOMORROW

Bishop J. Regis Canevin of the Pittsburg Diocese to be Here for Occasion and Will Preach Dedictory Sermon

EDIFICE ONE OF EXCEEDING BEAUTY

Tomorrow morning the new St. Jerome's Catholic church at the corner of Seventh street and Washington avenue will be dedicated. Rt. Rev. J. Regis Canevin, Bishop of the diocese of Pittsburg, will dedicate the church at 10 o'clock in the morning. At 10:30 the public dedicatory services will be held. Solemn high mass will be celebrated at this hour. The celebrant will be Rev. Robert McDonald of Braddock, the first pastor of the parish, Rev. T. A. Connors the first assistant pastor will serve as deacon and Rev. O. J. Kirby who was the second assistant pastor as sub-deacon. Rev. B. N. Axmacher, who is now the assistant pastor, will be the master of ceremonies, and Bishop Canevin will deliver the sermon. In the evening solemn vespers will be chanted after which Rev. P. E. Maher, of Roscoe will preach. Rev. William D. Fries, pastor of the handsome new edifice, has general charge of the dedication.

The basement of the building was erected about ten years ago, covered with a temporary roof and used for a church. Preparations for the building of the superstructure have been going on for some years, and the contract for this part of the work was let about a year ago. Since that time the work has progressed until the new church stands completed in every detail, except the final stained-glass windows in the aisles.

The building is 126 feet long, 56 feet wide through the body of the church and 69 feet through the transept. The proportions of the building follow the classical proportions of Gothic churches of this type, the nave being twice the width of the aisles, and the clerestory being supported on solid stone columns and masonry arches plastered and decorated. The most conspicuous feature of the church is, undoubtedly, the large corner tower, which rises upon a plain base to a height of 140 feet, the top of the tower receiving the most ornament as the crowning feature.

On account of the strong slope of the front street the front steps make a turn, which adds to the picturesque quality of the building, instead of being an objection. The style of the church is modern English Gothic, adapted to brick. The window frames are of carved stone, the glass being set directly into the stone. This saves repairs and painting and is the cheapest in the long run. The composition of the church from the rear is especially striking, with its side entrance, double gabled transepts, clerestory, and tower. The passage connecting the two sacristies in the rear forms a light projection which adds to the effectiveness of the rear.

The altar, fixtures and all furniture and decorations throughout have been designed by the architect and perfect harmony is thus secured in the art and architecture.

All the furniture is of brownish oak, the altar reredos having painted figures in the panels. That of the main altar contains the figure of the Lord and the four Doctors of the Church, St. Gregory, St. Jerome, St. Ambrose and St. Augustine. The side altars contain panels of angels holding various musical instruments, the center niche being occupied by a carved oak statue of the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph respectively. These paintings are original works of art, painted by Felix Lieftuchter, a young artist who has studied abroad.

A notable feature of the interior is the large crucifix hanging on chains from the sanctuary arch. This was also painted by Mr. Lieftuchter, and together with the beautiful stained glass window over the altar, designed by George Sotter and made in Pittsburg, form the focal points of the interior. The two small circular windows on each side of the altar chapel were designed by Mr. Walters and executed by the Pittsburg Plate Glass Co., as also were the small leaded glass windows in the clerestory.

A word should be said about the ceiling, which is not an imitation of stone vaulted ceilings of the past, which, in plaster, is illogical, but the ceiling form follows the construction of the roof and is divided into panels by painted bands which give interest and character to the ceiling. The sanctuary ceiling is especially rich and gorgeous in color and gives an idea of how the church will eventually be decorated.

The cost of the church without the basement is $50,000 and it is really a very economical building considering the results obtained. The architect is John T. Comes of Pittsburg.

The music at the dedication mass at St. Jerome's Catholic church under the direction of Joseph Schoener will be as follows:

Ecce Sacerdos, by John Wiegand.
Kyrie, by A. Rosewig.
Gloria, Crelo, Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei, from Mass "O Quanta Qualia," by A. Edmonds Tazet.
Offertory, "Veni Jesu" by Cherubini.
"Holy God we Praise Thy Name," from Roman Hymnal.

CURB MARKET TO BE OPENED FOR SUMMER ON NEXT SATURDAY

Arrangements Made for First Day's Operation--
William Darby to be the Manager and
Will Locate Wagons Systematically

Announcement was made today that the first day of the curb market season will be next Saturday, June 14. The curb market will be conducted upon plans similar to those upon which it was conducted last season, excepting that there will be a market manager, William Darby having been appointed to this important and responsible post.

The place for the curb market will be Sixth street. There the wagons will congregate. Mr. Darby's duties will be to locate the wagons in orderly array so there will be no confusion and to generally oversee all the market. In this way it is thought that not only the shoppers but the farmers and produce men will be benefited. In other words systematic ideas will be carried out.

Marketing days will be Saturdays and Tuesdays, throughout the summer. During the summer months it is probable that the Charleroi Marketing club, acting conjunctively with a committee from the Charleroi Business Men's Association will aid in the curb market work. Their work will be that of protection to the consumers and to secure justice all the way around in buying and selling.

The Charleroi Business Men's Association is taking an active part in the curb market work. It will lend whatever aid it can to making it an institution worth while.

DONORA BUYS LOCATION FOR PLAYGROUNDS

While Charleroi was the first town in the Monongahela valley to institute the public playgrounds, Donora will be the first in the valley to acquire municipal ownership of a plot of ground for that purpose. At the last meeting of the Donora council it was voted to buy a plot of ground embracing 19 lots of Neldon avenue for which a piece of municipal property and a cash consideration will be given. The property will be used for a public playgrounds and a park.

In New Quarters.
Both the Charleroi Real Estate Agency company and the office of J. W. Matthias, tax collector, have been removed from the First National Bank building at the corner of McKean avenue and Fifth street to the second floor of the Ross building at 411 McKean avenue, the present quarters of the First National bank.

VITCHESTEIN TO ARGUE TEMPERANCE IN CHURCH SPEECH

J. H. Vichestain, formerly editor of the Washington Record, will be one of the speakers at the tabernacle meetings to be held under the auspices of the Riverview Baptist church and which begins tomorrow afternoon. The services will be conducted by Rev. E. A. Deake, pastor of the Riverview church and Daniel Schultz, Labor Evangelist of Pittsburg. They will be assisted by W. H. English, pastor of the Hazelwood Baptist church; H. C. Gleise, Secretary of the Pittsburg Baptist Association, as well as Mr. Vichestain. The tent will be located between the New Eagle power house and the Riverview school house.

See, Charleroi is just like the biggest cities, having its shade tree commission.

Mrs. George Jenkins of Centerville, and Mrs. V. P. Jenkins, of Washington were guests of Mrs. P. J. Ailes.

BOYS AND GIRLS PONY CONTEST

A handsome, well-broke, gentle, thoroughbred Shetland Pony, with buggy and harness reared at the Oakwayne farm will be given to the boy or girl under 15 years of age who turns in the greatest number of Pony votes.

How to Secure Pony Votes.
The following merchants will give one vote with every penny's worth of goods purchased at their stores from now till September first when the Pony will be given to the child who secures the greatest number of votes:

George S. Might, book store, Palace Theatre, George Wagner, ice cream, J. M. Fleming, plumbing, C. R. Newcomer, shoes, Pipers Pharmacy, drugs, Farmers Supply Company, harness etc., Frye Hardware Co., James Gelder, meat market, Collins Wall Paper Co., City Grocery, W. B. Carson Co., groceries, Eugene Pau, dry goods, S. L. Woodward, furniture, Greenberg Bros., clothing, H. Porter, jeweler, M. Wein, tailor, Carl M. Wertz, printer.

If your parents, your relatives or friends are to buy groceries, see to it that they go to the store that gives away votes. If it is shoes or dry goods or candy, jewelry, printing or what not see to it that they are purchased at the store that gives away votes free. If you are going to the show you get pony votes at the Palace; if its jewelry for June wedding presents go to Porter. And so on all through all lines of merchandise you will find the live wire merchants to be interested in Pony votes. If you buy $10.00 worth of groceries a month you are entitled to 1000 votes. Have all your friends in the country who trade in Charleroi to go to the Pony Vote store, and save the votes for you.

Every live boy wants a pony and here is an opportunity for one boy in Charleroi to earn one for himself. All it takes is a little work among your friends. Deposit your votes at the following stores in boxes already prepared: Might, Pipers and Fryes. See that your name is on every vote. 269-2t

BANQUET FOR GUTHRIE ATTRACTS LOCAL PEOPLE

Honor Affair to Pittsburger Who Was Named Ambassador to Japan Assumes Proportions of International Function

ADDRESSES ARE MADE BY NOTED MEN

George W. Guthrie, former mayor of Pittsburg and recently appointed ambassador to Japan was paid a marked tribute by his neighbors and friends at Pittsburg Friday evening when he was honored by a banquet.

The dinner, which took place in McCree's dining hall, was the occasion to the assembling of fully 1,100 people, not only of the Democratic faith and profession, but of all political callings. Previous to the dinner a reception to Mr. Guthrie took place on the third floor of the building. This lasted from 6 until 8. Secretary Bryan and Viscount Chinda were unable to reach Pittsburg in time to participate in the reception and Mr. Guthrie received alone although Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer, and Secretary of Labor W. B. Wilson were present and were recipients of much of the handshaking.

Fire toasts were given and speeches made. Mr. Guthrie, Secretary Bryan, Secretary Wilson, Ambassador Chinda, George Heard, of Pittsburg and Piper and Burgess George W. Ris, Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer were the principal speakers.

SCORES AWAIT THE COMING OF "MOTHER" JONES

Scores of Charleroi people are expected to be present at Eldora Park tomorrow afternoon when "Mother" Jones, one of the most famous characters of the labor world will appear and lecture. "Mother" Jones will give a talk at 2:30 o'clock. In the evening at 7 George Kirkpatrick, author of "War, What For" will appear and will lecture. "Mother" Jones has never visited this part of the Monongahela valley before, though she is well known in various other coal fields. She will preach the Socialistic doctrine on her first visit as she would were it her last. She is a Socialist because that to her represents what is the nearest to perfection of the political parties. It will be under the auspices of the Tri-County Socialist party that she will appear.

Even the enemies of "Mother" Jones recognize her as a remarkable woman. Considering that she is 81 years old and still traveling about giving lectures and aiding in the labor cause wherever she can, it is not strange that he is called remarkable.

WHY WAIT?

The intelligence comes from Harrisburg that in case the legislature
does not adjourn before the Fourth of July that Governor Tener will exercise his prerogative and adjourn the body for a four months' recess. This
would carry the adjournment beyond
the election next November, when the
voters will pass upon the constitutional amendment providing for a
bond issue of fifty million dollars for
road improvements. In case the
amendment carries the adjourned session will be able to pass the enabling
acts permitting the expenditure of
the bond issue and its immediate use
instead of waiting for the next session of the legislature, two years
hence.

There have been objections advanced against the enabling acts at
this particular time, but in the interests of progress and development the
sooner the road improvements—if they are to be made—are started and completed the better for all the people. There is nothing to be gained
by waiting two years to make a
start in a proposed progressive
movement, and the proposition to
either adjourn the present legislature until after election, or call a
special session is only good business.
Why wait two years to start a much
needed work when it can be done in
much shorter time?

AN AUSPICIOUS EVENT.

The dedication of St. Jerome's new Catholic church tomorrow marks an
auspicious event in the history of Charleroi. Not only is it a triumph
and an achievement for the local congregation, but it indicates that the
religious and devotional spirit of the
community is in the ascendancy, and
in the growth and promotion of that
spirit the new structure will wield a
mighty influence for good.

As an enduring monument for
elevating and broadening the lives of all who come under its sphere of influence, the new church becomes a
potent factor in the development of Charleroi. In a material way it also adds to the appearance and beauty
of the town, and its architectural
beauty and permanency contributes in
no inconsiderable degree to the stability and prestige of the Magic City.
Every new structure of this nature
adds to the value of property in the town which helps to make investment

profitable and secure. As a town is favorably known by the number and excellence of its school and church
buildings, the fact that Charleroi
has already made in this direction
will receive a tremendous impetus by the dedication of St. Jerome's church which marks the completion of the beautiful new structure that is an ornament and a credit to any community.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

A correspondent to a woman's department asks the question when morning and evening begin. The answer should be, morning begins
when you go to work and evening
when you quit.

Dumbness and silence are two different things. Yes, but they are very much the same to a jury.

It rather seems that "Bill" Locke,
now of the Phila. Nationals doesn't have a bit of sympathy with his former employers.

A good way to remove potato bugs
is to pour kerosene on the vines and then touch a match to them.

Even though it doesn't seem to be sure of anything else, the legislature
has apparently made up its mind it wants a recess.

Some men who are not in politics
at all run for office every morning.

One trouble with the country is that too many people think they know what life is and try to tell.

It never was a very generally recognized fact that a community
bad health until the Greene county rural correspondents informed the world of the fact. Now even the tariff is bothered by germs.

Harry Thaw seems to have lost
his estimate since Pittsburg got into the limelight.

It is usually hard on the defendant
and easy on the public for the former
to be found guilty.

Legislators ought to be wide-awake men—Exchange. Ssh! Don't joke like that.

posed to be dances classic-shaped

clothes to bother them.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

It is not difficult to hear funny
things in New York, wherever you
go if you listen and keep your eyes
open. Here is a conversation that I overheard in a restaurant in New York between a dussy diner and a kind waiter, says a writer in the New York Sun.

"Say, waiter."
"Yes, sir."
"I want a dozen blue points."
"Yes, sir."
"Oh, waiter."
"Yes, sir."
"Steamed, you know."
"Yes, sir."
"Oh, waiter."
"Yes, sir."
"You will see that they are not
ne too much."
"No, sir."
"Oh, and waiter."
"No, sir."
"Will you see that they put just
a squeeze of lemon in each shell?"
"Yes, sir."
"Oh, and waiter, just the smallest amount of butter over them when you serve them."
"Yes, sir."
"Oh, and waiter."
"Yes, sir."
"And, sir—" asked the waiter
finally, exasperated.
"Yes, waiter."
"Would you like them with or without?"
"What?"
"Pearls," said the waiter and disappeared.

"Nat Goodwin was attending a
vaudeville performance in some theatre, when a performer came along
who was giving imitations of celebrities. He looked up at Nat Good-
win in the box, and said to the audience, 'I shall be very glad now to
give you an imitation of our foremost
American comedian, Nat Goodwin.'
Mr. Goodwin appeared to be some-
what embarrassed, which added very
much to the laughter and amusement
of the audience. After the performer had given his imitation, he looked up at Mr. Goodwin in the box, and
said directly to him:
"How was that, Nat?"
"Well, one of us is rotten," said
Goodwin, while shouts of laughter
followed the sally.

TRAINED IN HOUSEHOLD WORK

German Institution Teaches Girls
Domestic Service, and Finds Great Demand for Graduates.

Berlin has an institution, founded
about two years ago by a woman.
The object of the "Sister School," as it is called, is to train well-educated girls for domestic service. The students are generally daughters of professional men, and the curriculum comprises cookery, housework, the care of children, and needlework.
When application is made for the services of a "sister," the matron, or some other woman connected with
the school, calls upon the applicant,
forms an opinion of the "situation,"
and arranges terms. Each "sister"
must be allowed a free afternoon
every week, one Sunday every other week from four o'clock, and a fort-night's holiday in the year. Six weeks' notice is required on each part.
The salaries paid range from $7.50
to $12.50 a month, with, of course, board and lodging. Sisters wear a brown uniform, are treated as social equals, are not required to take
meals with other servants, and are addressed as "Sister Marie," "Sister Hedwig," etc. The demand for their services is so great that the head of the Sister school declares that she could place 500 girls a year, instead of 50, and similar institutions are about to be established in other German towns.

MAKE WAREHOUSE OF CHURCH

Sacred Edifice at Brighton, England,
Has Been Unfortunate Since
Its Erection.

To serve as a cold storage warehouse for meat and eggs—such is the fate of the beautiful Church of the Resurrection at Brighton, England.
Built at the expense of the late Rev.
H. D. Wagner for the accommodation,
it is said, of the poorer members of the congregation, and for those who preferred a ritual simpler than that of St. Paul's church on West street, this building first attracted the public attention as the subject of a curious lawsuit. Mr. Wagner planned to build a remarkably tall church, and the owners of the adjoining property, by means of a lawsuit, prevented him from so doing. Accordingly he caused deep excavations to be made, and thus secured the desired internal height. The Church of the Resurrection proved to be a great expense and was closed in 1903, being, in the opinion of the present vicar of St. Paul's,
no longer necessary for the purpose for which it was built. In 1909, after prolonged opposition on the part of Rev.
E. F. B. Weber, one of the trustees,
it was sold. Since then it has stood empty and in disrepair, until the grotesque tragedy of its present usage occurred.—The Churchman.

Tons of Iron Lost in Rust.

One large railroad system suffers a loss of more than eighteen tons of metal daily, due solely to the effect of rust. Thus far the only known preventive is to keep the metal surface always covered with a suitable paint. Some idea of the costliness of this remedy, however, may be gained from the fact that it requires about $10,000 annually to paint one large railway bridge alone. A typical case of this kind is the Brooklyn bridge,
upon which a corps of painters are constantly employed, as the weather
makes repainting of one end of this large structure necessary before the workers have reached the other. Although experiments have demonstrated that pure iron surrounded by oxygen does not rust, and that some acid,
especially carbonic acid, is necessary
for the production of rust, the secret of manufacturing rustless steel and iron remains to be discovered.

Lasting Joke.

How long will a good joke last?
Who can tell? You have heard that one about the good sleighing in Canada, and how by putting on a pair of pajamas and sitting on a cake of ice
before an open window and ringing a bell one can get the same effect, and much cheaper. Billy Emerson, the minstrel, originated that one over thirty-five years ago, and it is one that has never run down. DeWolf Hopper began to use it in his curtain speeches
eleven years ago, and ever since, eight times a week forty weeks a season, he has used it and it has never failed to get a laugh. Always there are some in the audience who never heard it.
Hopper figures that with the addition of a few score times at private functions he has "sprung" the chestnut 2,763 times. It is his one best bet, he says, and expects to use it as long as $20 Gold Pieces a Quarter Each.

When five boys commenced to sell
$10 and $20 gold pieces on the streets
of North Scranton for 25 cents each,
with the supply apparently unlimited,
curiosity was at once aroused as to the source of supply, and the boys were taken into custody and given the "third degree." When searched the youths' pockets produced over $600 in gold coin and when questioned they admitted that they had found a "pot of gold."

The money was buried in a box in the cellar of a house formerly occupied by Peter J. Scanlon, who during his lifetime had the reputation of being a miser. There were $220 in shiny gold pieces in the box. The boys, none of whom was over eight years of age, thought they were brass
medals and sold about twenty of them
before being arrested.—Scranton (Pa.)

Resolutions of Respect

At a regular meeting of Charleroi
Circle 303 P. H. C. Friday, June 6th, 1913 the following resolutions of
respect were adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased the Divine Ruler of the Universe to remove from our midst our Brother Frank Arrison.

Resolved, That our charter be draped for 30 days in honor of his memory, resolutions of respect
drafted a copy of the same to be spread upon our minutes a copy to be sent to the bereaved family and printed in daily papers.

While we humbly submit to the Divine Power in removing from our midst our Brother Frank Arrison we
as well as his immediate friends feel
the deep loss.

His accustomed place in this Circle is now vacant, the tongue has lost
its power of speech, the lips are closed in the cold embrace of death. His form and face are now forever hidden from our vision. No more will we see him in our midst but his goodness of heart, manly virtues and acts
of charity are engraved upon our hearts and memories. The Immortal Rules of the Universe has called him
from his place in this Circle chamber
to a more exalted one in the Heavenly Circle above.

Pennies.

That Americans are careless of their small change is evidenced by the fact that of the 150,000,000 pennies annually sent out from the Philadelphia mint only a small percentage
are ever accounted for afterward.

It is thought that but a very small percentage of pennies lost in the streets are ever found, since they lack luster and fail to catch the eye as does a silver coin. The chances are that they are swept up with rubbish
and so, for the most part, lost as coins.

County fairs and shows of various kinds mutilate thousands of pennies
every year. At the fairs one may see a machine that will flatten a cent and
at the same time emboss a souvenir view of the event.

Hundreds of thousands of pennies
are carried out of the United States
by tourists, who leave them abroad.
A year or two ago 100,000 of them
were shipped to Cuban bankers and placed in circulation among the laboring classes in Cuba. The American copper runs a close second to the pin,
of which millions are lost every year.

New York's Largest Oak.

The largest oak of which there is any record in New York state formerly stood a short distance from the town of Genesee, and it is famous in history as the spot where the big tree treaty was signed. It was made with the Seneca tribe of Indians by Robert Morris, acting for a land company,
in 1797. This was the same Robert Morris who was one of the signers
of the Declaration of Independence.
The tree was sometimes called the Wadsworth oak, as the log house of the original settler, William Wadsworth, stood nearby and was used as
the council house during the treaty negotiations. In 1857 the big tree fell down, due to decay. Its trunk near the ground was 27 feet in circumfer-ence, and estimates were made that it was close to 1,000 years old.

Hadn't Done So Badly.
The father of a family who had been striving to bring up his children in the way they should go was very much annoyed at his son's uncouth habit of helping himself to a few bites before grace had been said. The stereotyped form called for: "A blessing on what we are about to eat," but one occasion being particularly exasperating, he astounded the young man by adding to his petition, "and on that which has already been eaten."

Concrete an Old Story.
Rome was not built in a day, nor built as fast as Tammanytown, nor built in structural steel, but it turns out that most of Rome's mighty structures, temples, circuses, baths, aqueducts, were built in concrete, not reinforced with iron and steel, as we build now, but a good quality of sand stone and cement nevertheless. On this powerful central core of cement was fitted an ornamental facing of finest marble.

Too Good to Lose.
Jack—"Now that your engagement is broken, are you going to make Blanche send back your letters?" Harry—"You bet I am. I worked hard thinking out those letters; they're worth using again."

Scientific Fact Established.
A number of rabbits upon whom coffee was tried to determine the effect of the caffeine it contained died, proving beyond a doubt that coffee never was intended as food for rabbits.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Made His Blessing Retroactive.
The father of a family who had been striving to bring up his children in the way they should go was very much annoyed at his son's uncouth habit of helping himself to a few bites before grace had been said. The stereotyped form called for: "A blessing on what we are about to eat," but one occasion being particularly exasperating, he astounded the young man by adding to his petition, "and on that which has already been eaten."

Fully Explained.
Every now and again some individual arises to tell us Why We Are, and What We Are, and How We Know Why We Are, and How We Are What We Know, and What We Would Be if We Weren't, and What We're Not, and What We're Not, and Why We Aren't What We Mightn't Have Been if We Weren't, and other simple and entrancing facts. Such an individual is called a philosopher.—Bulletin, Sidney.

Will Destroy Moths.
It is said that the following will destroy moths, eggs and larvae in a closet: Place a brick on the floor of the closet and on this a tin or iron pan. Heat a brick until it becomes very hot and then put it in the pan. Pour hot, strong vinegar on this brick, then close the door and keep it closed for 24 hours. The steam from the vinegar will kill any live thing that may be in the closet.

Little Doubt About It.
Married a month, a young man told the magistrate that his wife had done the following things: Torn up the marriage certificate, pawned the ring, torn up her wedding dress, assaulted him. She followed him to court, he added, but he managed to dodge her. The Clerk: "You took her for better or worse, and you seem to have got the worse."

Specialists Recommend Yawning.
In the opinion of learned specialists no one can be healthy unless he or she does a certain amount of yawning. When you yawn you expel from the lungs a lot of superfluous air; the breathing muscles of both the chest and the throat are strengthened by yawning.

His Fear.
"Weren't you afraid to go downstairs in the dark last night?" asked a woman of her little son recently. "Yes, I was a little afraid," answered the boy. "But what were you afraid of?" asked the mother. "H'm," said the boy, "I was afraid there wouldn't be any doughnuts."

To Preserve Home of George Fox.
Swarthmoor hall, near Ulverston, Lancashire (Eng.) formerly the home of George Fox, founder of the Society of Friends, was bought at Ulverston, a short time ago, on behalf of the English members of the society for £5,250. His writing desk was bought for 25 guineas.

The Merry Advertiser.
Who says there is no more any genuine English humor? A provision dealer in Earl's court neighborhood, London, displays this on a window sign: "When visiting Shakespeare's England, eat England's Bacon."

And So It Goes in Life.
"A girl," remarks Mack Cretcher, "must have dolls and ribbons and lots of fancy things to play with. A boy can have a pretty good time with nothing but a toad, a grasshopper and a few angle worms."

Perhaps a Tragic Comedy.
A writer once said that the world is a comedy to those who think, a tragedy to those who feel. He doesn't say what it is to the fellow who tries to take a wide garbage can through a narrow alleyway.—Satire.

For Tired Feet.
When your feet ache, caused by long standing, exercise them by rising first to the toes, then on the heels, in a rocking motion for a few times. This was advised by a specialist.—Woman's Home Companion.

Man's Eating.
One man likes to be made a fuss over, another likes to be let alone and a third likes his mind diverted. But in all cases have something good for him to eat, whatever kind he is.

Easy.
Young Widow—"Did you have any trouble getting Jack to propose?" Girl Friend—"No, dear; I told him you were after him."—Boston Transcript.

Daily Thought.
One principal point of good breeding is to suit our behavior to the three several degrees of men—our superiors, our equals and those below us.—Swift.

Difference.
The only difference between a caprice and a life-long passion is that the caprice lasts a little longer.—The Tatler.

Producing Optimism.
A very good remedy for anybody's pessimism is being able to pay his bills.—New York Press.

GOOD OLD AMERICAN NAMES

"Monakers" Seen in News of Day Indicate New York Is Our Foremost European Capital.

In the news of one day in New York we find that a man by the name of Isidore Steinberg pleaded guilty to bigamy in the court of a judge named Rosalsky; that a youth named Tumoshelsky was drowned; a man named Blau was convicted of keeping disorderly resort; a girl named Anna Cleone was a principal witness in a murder case; a Madame Le Comptie figured in domestic sensation; a certain Miss Zella brought a breach of promise case; a Governor named Sulzer sent a message to the legislature; Hannes Kolehmainen was the star of a footrace; another runner named Abel Kiviat made a fast trial spin; and a Mr. Max Hochstim figured in a hotel scandal.

The names of Klonz, Remitz, Brosi, Gaw, Levi, Harberg, Golla, Schenkel, Stovell, Mennak, Dalldorf, Jensen, Yohanan, Stappers, Lococo, Hulse, Mac-trich, Wirsing, Wexler, Szabo, Tietelbaum, Trifari, Carnap, Loew, Brandus, Mahoney, Braum, Kimmelman, Ubert, Sarlin, Trosky, Mullan and Beubel are the first to assail the eye on turning to a page of advertisements.

In another generation or two these will be good old American names. Meanwhile New York will continue to be our foremost European capital.

SAYS ALL WOMEN ARE LIARS

German Diplomat, Who Got the "Mitten," Declares Fair Sex Deficient Morally.

"All women are liars and are deficient in their sense of moral duty." This and more is the opinion of Baron Herrmann von Kuhlmann of Bavaria, unmarried and attached to German embassy at Peking, who arrived on the Chivo Maru recently.

According to fellow passengers, the baron formed his views on the voyage when his attentions to Miss Katherine Enright of Chicago did not meet with hearty response.

"A woman cannot recognize the same moral responsibility as a man," said the baron. "No marriage can remain a happy one for more than a year. By that time a man will lose faith in his wife."

Then, turning to Miss Enright, the baron said:

"We have had a pleasant trip. But to have you for a wife if I could—never! You are too energetic."

Returning to the interview, the baron continued:

"Woman is illogical and untrustworthy. She changes her mind too frequently. Woman has no feeling requiring her to tell the truth. In Germany a man and wife are comrades, but in America—never. Here the women are proud and selfish and the men suffer for it."

Advice About Reading.

Be sure, then, to read no mean books; shun the spawn of the press in the gossip of the hour. Do not read what you shall learn, without asking, in the street and the train. Dr. Johnson said he "always went into stately shops," and good travelers stop at the best hotels; for though they cost more they do not cost much more, and there is the good company and the best information. In like manner the scholar knows that the famous books contain, first and last, the best thoughts and facts. . . . The three practical rules, then, which I have to offer are (1) Never read any book that is not a year old. (2) Never read any but famed books. (3) Never read any but what you like.—Emerson

Community in News.

At a friend's southern hunting lodge his wife has learned that her "ring-up" on the telephone is accompanied by the click of receivers all along the line. Every one is obviously listening to what she says. On one occasion a telegram was telephoned to the lodge, and the following day, when her husband met a rural neighbor on the road, the latter drew rein to converse.

"Mr. Grey," said he, "I didn't catch the first part of that telegram we got yesterday."

Mr. Grey accordingly enlightened his ignorance forthwith.—New York World.

Farmer's Suggestion.

A Florida farmer who was raising strawberries for the market sent a shipment to New York and the commission merchant wrote back that the berries were too ripe, consequently poor prices and small return checks, so next time the grower picked them earlier and the results were about the same, as the New York man said they were too green for the market; so the next shipment the man pulled up the plants by the roots, packed them in boxes and said, "You can pick them when just right for your particular market."

Made Dogs and Rats Fight.

For keeping premises in Soar Lane, Leicester, for dog and rat fighting, Walter Manship was at Leicester yesterday fined £5 under the protection of animals act, and for assisting him Ernest Manship and Albert Martin of Leicester, Joseph Ward of Hinckley and James Mason of Birmingham were fined £1 each. It was stated that on Boxing day terrier dogs were placed in a rat pit and a number of rats were killed. All the competing dogs were badly bitten and in one competition two rats were seen hanging from the bleeding jaws of a dog.—London Mail.

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE PALACE—CHARLEROI.
Headlining the vaudeville program for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, at the Palace Theatre this week are the "Lonbrake Trio," high class entertainers. This trio features Arthur Lonbrake, the popular song writer whose songs have been played and sung at the Palace. Some of his biggest hits are "The Preacher and the Bear," "Cutie, Who Tied Your Tie," and "Oh, You Beautiful Doll." Others on the program are Vernon and Clare in flute and piccolo selection and slight of hand. In solo selection and slight of hand, In said to be in the Kellar class. The program is a strong one, and all the principals excel in their respective specialties. With the Pathe Weekly and a change of moving pictures nightly, the repertoire is most entertaining. A matinee will be held Saturday.

THE COYLE—CHARLEROI
Two two-reel dramas, with a three reel and two reel for Saturday, are the leading features at the Coyle Theatre this week. The two reel pictures were "The Smuggler's Daughter," a thrilling story with a wild and rugged sea coast setting, and "The Northern Spy," not the apple of that name, but a sensational civil war drama, in which some stirring adventures are recounted. There was plenty of wild and free action in both of these dramas, which appeal to the adventurous spirits that are as keen today for the stirring life of the open as in the days of chivalry. "The Sheriff's Rivals," "Miss Nobody," and "Bozo Arrives," were some of the leading dramas. The latter was the dream of a hobo, which showed that even the tattered knight of the road is not without his dream of romance. "Billy's First Quarrel" and "The Black Smaltpox Scare" were among the comedies of the week that made a hit. "Petty's Bandit," "A Woman Loved," and "The Whole Truth" were some of the best of the sentimental and melodramatic films. Saturday's bill is "The Toll of War" in three reels, and "Out of the Depths," in two reels, making five reels in all.

THE STAR—CHARLEROI.
Swung in the motion picture dramas that makes the Star Theatre a most popular resort, the schedule this week had its usual repertoire of good features. Chief among these was "The Gray Sentinel," a thrilling Broncho war drama. Others were "A Renegade's Heart," "When Ghost Meets Ghost," and "The Night Riders." The last was a sensational drama founded on the night riding raids in the "tobacco war" in Kentucky, where the producers tried to break the monopoly that mulct them out of a part of their lawful profits. "In Those Good Old Days" was a tale of the time of Queen Elizabeth, when chivalry and court etiquette played such an important part in English life. "On Fortune's Wheel," is a thrilling Kay Bee with most sensational features that is booked for Friday. Manager Tom B. Cowan has a line on all the good and late films of the independent circuit, and his patrons are always assured of something new and novel. The Saturday bill for both matinee and night is unusually attractive.

Woman.
To think of a part one little woman can play in the life of a man, so that to renounce her may be a very good imitation of heroism, and to win her may be a discipline!—George Elliot.

Sublime Thoughts.

Course Not.

IT'S A MISTAKE

Made By Many Charleroi Residents.
Many people in a misguided effort to get rid of kidney backache, rely on plasters, liniments and other makeshifts. The right treatment is kidney treatment and a remarkably recommended kidney medicine is Doan's Kidney Pills. Charleroi is no exception.

The proof is at your very door. The following is an experience typical of the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Charleroi.

Mrs. Robert Coulter, 207 Prospect Ave., Charleroi, Pa., says: "Some years ago my son had the measles and on recovering, I noticed that his kidneys were very weak. He had no control over the kidney secretions and this was especially annoying at night. I had often seen Doan's Kidney Pills highly advertised in the local papers and was finally induced to get a supply at Piper Bros. Drug Store. I had my son use them and before long he was greatly benefited."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

HELP FOR WORKING GIRLS

Two Girls Tell Story of Their Illness and How They Found Relief.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."

—Miss ANELIA JAQUILLARD, 613 Seventh Street, New Orleans, La.

St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because my periods were suppressed and I had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them."

—Miss ESTELLA MAGUIRE, 110 Thwing St., Saint Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

ST. JEROME'S CHURCH DEDICATION TOMORROW

Bishop J. Regis Canevin of the Pittsburgh Diocese to be Here for Occasion and Will Preach Dedictory Sermon

EDIFICE ONE OF EXCEEDING BEAUTY

Tomorrow morning the new St. Jerome's Catholic church at the corner of Seventh street and Washington avenue will be dedicated. Rt. Rev. J. Regis Canevin, Bishop of the diocese of Pittsburgh, will dedicate the church at 10 o'clock in the morning. At 10:30 the public dedicatory services will be held. Solemn high mass will be celebrated at this hour. The celebrant will be Rev. Robert McDonald of Braddock, the first pastor of the parish, Rev. T. A. Connors the first assistant pastor will serve as deacon and Rev. O. J. Kirby who was the second assistant pastor as sub-deacon. Rev. B. N. Axmacher, who is now the assistant pastor, will be the master of ceremonies, and Bishop Canevin will deliver the sermon. In the evening solemn vespers will be chanted after which Rev. P. E. Maher, of Roscoe will preach. Rev. William D. Fries, pastor of the handsome new edifice, has general charge of the dedication.

The basement of the building was erected about ten years ago, covered with a temporary roof and used for a church. Preparations for the building of the superstructure have been going on for some years, and the contract for this part of the work was let about a year ago. Since that time the work has progressed until the new church stands completed in every detail, except the final stained-glass windows in the aisles.

The building is 126 feet long, 56 feet wide through the body of the church and 69 feet through the transept. The proportions of the building follow the classical proportions of Gothic churches of this type, the nave being twice the width of the aisles, and the clerestory being supported on solid stone columns and masonry arches plastered and decorated.

The most conspicuous feature of the church is, undoubtedly, the large corner tower, which rises upon a plain base to a height of 140 feet, the top of the tower receiving the most ornament as the crowning feature.

On account of the strong slope of the front street the front steps make a turn, which adds to the picturesque of the building, instead of being an objection. The style of the church is modern English Gothic, adapted to brick. The window frames are of carved stone, the glass being set directly into the stone. This saves repairs and painting and is the cheapest in the long run. The composition of the church from the rear is especially striking, with its side entrance, double gabled transepts, clerestory, and tower. The passage connecting the two sacristies in the rear forms a light projection which adds to the effectiveness of the rear.

The altar, fixtures and all furniture and decorations throughout have been designed by the architect and perfect harmony is thus secured in the art and architecture.

All the furniture is of brownish oak, the altar reredos having painted figures in the panels. That of the main altar contains the figure of the Lord and the four Doctors of the Church, St. Gregory, St. Jerome, St. Ambrose and St. Augustine. The side altars contain panels of angels holding various musical instruments, the center niche being occupied by a carved oak statue of the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph respectively. These paintings are original works of art, painted by Felix Lieftochter, a young artist who has studied abroad.

A notable feature of the interior is the large crucifix hanging on chains from the sanctuary arch. This was also painted by Mr. Lieftochter, and together with the beautiful stained glass window over the altar, designed by George Sotter and made in Pittsburgh, form the focal points of the interior. The two small circular windows on each side of the altar chapel were designed by Mr. Walters and executed by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co., as also were the small leaded glass windows in the clerestory.

A word should be said about the ceiling, which is not an imitation of stone vaulted ceilings of the past, which, in plaster, is illogical, but the ceiling form follows the construction of the roof and is divided into panels by painted bands which give interest and character to the ceiling. The sanctuary ceiling is especially rich and gorgeous in color and gives an idea of how the church will eventually be decorated.

The cost of the church without the basement is $50,000 and it is really a very economical building considering the results obtained. The architect is John T. Comes of Pittsburgh.

The music at the dedication mass at St. Jerome's Catholic church under the direction of Joseph Schoener will be as follows:

Exce Sacerdo, by John Wiegand.
Kyrie, by A. Rosewig.
Gloria, Credo, Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei, from Mass "O Quanta Qualia," by A. Edmonds Izor.
Offertory, "Veni Jesu" by Cherubini.
"Holy God we Praise Thy Name," from Roman Hymnal.

CURB MARKET TO BE OPENED FOR SUMMER ON NEXT SATURDAY

Arrangements Made for First Day's Operation--
William Darby to be the Manager and
Will Locate Wagons Systematically

Announcement was made today that the first day of the curb market season will be next Saturday, June 14. The curb market will be conducted upon plans similar to those upon which it was conducted last season, excepting that there will be a market manager, William Darby having been appointed to this important and responsible post.

The place for the curb market will be Sixth street. There the wagons will be located in orderly array so there will be no confusion and to generally oversee all the market. In this way it is thought that not only the shoppers but the farmers and produce men will be benefited.

In other words systematic ideas will be carried out.

Marketing days will be Saturdays and Tuesdays, throughout the summer. During the summer months it is probable that the Charleroi Marketing club, acting conjunctively with a committee from the Charleroi Business Men's Association will aid in the curb market work. Their work will be that of protection to the consumers and to secure justice all the way around in buying and selling.

The Charleroi Business Men's Association is taking an active part in the curb market work. It will lend whatever aid it can to making it an institution worth while.

DONORA BUYS LOCATION FOR PLAYGROUNDS

While Charleroi was the first town in the Monongahela valley to institute the public playgrounds, Donora will be the first in the valley to acquire municipal ownership of a plot of ground for that purpose. At the last meeting of the Donora council it was voted to buy a plot of ground embracing 19 lots of Maldon avenue for which a piece of municipal property and a cash consideration will be given. The property will be used for a public playgrounds and a park.

In New Quarters.
Both the Charleroi Real Estate Agency company and the office of J. W. Mathias, tax collector, have been removed from the First National Bank building at the corner of McKean avenue and Fifth street to the second floor of the Ross building at 411 McKean avenue, the present quarters of the First National bank.

VITCHESTEIN TO ARGUE TEMPERANCE IN CHURCH SPEECH

Vichestein, formerly editor of the Washington Record, will be one of the speakers at the tabernacle meetings to be held under the auspices of the Riverview Baptist church and which begins tomorrow afternoon. The services will be conducted by Rev. E. A. Deake, pastor of the Riverview church and Daniel Schultz, Labor Evangelist of Pittsburgh. They will be assisted by W. H. English, pastor of the Hazelwood Baptist church; H. C. Gleise, Secretary of the Pittsburgh Baptist Association, as well as Mr. Vichestein. The tent will be located between the New Eagle power house and the Riverview school house.

See, Charleroi is just like the biggest cities, having its shade tree commission.

Mrs. George Jenkins of Centerville, and Mrs. V. P. Jenkins, of Washington were guests of Mrs. P. J. Ailes.

BOYS AND GIRLS PONY CONTEST

A handsome, well-broke, gentle, thoroughbred Shetland Pony, with buggy and harness reared at the Oakwayne farm will be given to the boy or girl under 15 years of age who turns in the greatest number of Pony votes.

George S. Might, book store, Palace Theatre, George Wagner, ice cream, J. M. Fleming, plumbing, C. R. Newcomer, shoes, Pipers Pharmacy, drugs, Farmers Supply Company, harness etc., Frye Hardware Co., James Gelder, meat market, Collins Wall Paper Co., City Grocery, W. B. If you are going to the show you get pony votes at the Palace; if its jewelry for June wedding presents go to Porter. And so on all through all lines of merchandise you will find the live wire merchants to be interested in Pony votes. If you buy $10.00 worth of groceries a month you are entitled to 1000 votes. Have all your friends in the country who trade in Charleroi to go to the Pony Vote stores and save the votes for you.

Every live boy wants a pony and here is an opportunity for one boy in Charleroi to earn one for himself. All it takes is a little work among your friends. Deposit your votes at the following stores in boxes already prepared: Might's, Pipers and Fryes. See that your name is on every vote. 269-42

Honor Affair to Pittsburgher Who Was Named Ambassador to Japan Assumes Proportions of International Function

ADDRESSES ARE MADE BY NOTED MEN

George W. Guthrie, former mayor of Pittsburgh and recently appointed ambassador to Japan was paid a marked tribute by his neighbors and friends at Pittsburgh Friday evening when he was honored by a banquet.

The affair was arranged especially for him by Democratic leaders, but it developed into an international affair in which there were reiterations of the peace pact between the United States and Japan. Viscount Suteimi Chinda, Japanese Ambassador to the United States, was present and he and Mr. Guthrie vied with each other in felicitations. William Jennings Bryan, secretary of state and William B. Wilson, secretary of labor, corroborated the testimony of friendship.

Monongahela valley helped Pittsburgh entertain and Charleroi had a distinct part. J. D. Beryman, S. L. Woodward, J. P. Clutter, Henry Sheets, George W. Banford, Dr. T. M. Faddis, Dr. J. W. Manon, Earl E. Piper and Burgess George W. Risbeck, made up a party that was present from here. County Commissioner A. P. Barnum of Allenport was also present.

The dinner, which took place in McCree's dining hall, was the occasion to the assembling of fully 1,100 people, not only of the Democratic faith and profession, but of all political callings. Previous to the dinner a reception to Mr. Guthrie took place on the third floor of the building. This lasted from 6 until 8. Secretary Bryan and Viscount Chinda were unable to reach Pittsburgh in time to participate in the reception and Mr. Guthrie received alone although Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer, and Secretary of Labor W. B. Wilson were present and were recipients of much of the handshaking.

Fine toasts were given and speeches made. Mr. Guthrie, Secretary Bryan, Secretary Wilson, Ambassador Chinda, George Heard, of Pittsburgh and Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer were the principal speakers.

WOMEN'S DAY TO BE OBSERVED AT A. M. E. CHURCH

Women's Day will be observed at St. James A. M. E. church tomorrow and the women of the church will be entirely in charge of the services. At the morning service at 10:45 o'clock Mrs. M. E. Webster, Mrs. T. E. Wilson and Mrs. D. F. Ferguson.

An afternoon session will be held at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. An address will be made by Mrs. G. A. Johnson, the response by Mrs. Celie Robinson, papers given by Mrs. P. H. Williams and Mrs. Mollie B. Jones and remarks by Mrs. Rebecca Aldridge. Others to have parts on the program of the afternoon will be Mrs. T. E. Wilson, Alice Morris, Mrs. E. SCORES AWAIT THE COMING OF "MOTHER" JONES

Scores of Charleroi people are expected to be present at Eldora Park tomorrow afternoon when "Mother" Jones, one of the most famous characters of the labor world will appear and lecture. "Mother" Jones will give a talk at 2:30 o'clock. In the evening at 7 George Kirkpatrick, author of "War, What For?" will appear and will lecture.

"Mother" Jones has never visited this part of the Monongahela valley before, though she is well known in various other coal fields. She will preach the Socialistic doctrine of her first visit as she would were it the last. She is a Socialist because she to her represents what is the nearest to perfection of the political parties. It will be under the auspices of the Tri-County Socialist party that she will appear.

Even the enemies of "Mother" Jones recognize her as a remarkable woman. Considering that she is 81 years old and still traveling about giving lectures and aiding in the labor cause wherever she can, it is not strange that he is called remarkable.

WILL PLAY BENEFIT GAME IN INTERESTS OF PLAYGROUNDS

WHY WAIT?

The intelligence comes from Ha-

risburg that in case the legislature

does not adjourn before the Fourth of

July that Governor Tener will exercise his prerogative and adjourn the

body for a four months' recess. This

would carry the adjournment beyond

the election next November, when the

voters will pass upon the constitutional amendment providing for a

bond issue of fifty million dollars for

road improvements. In case the

amendment carries the adjourned session will be able to pass the enabling

acts permitting the expenditure of

the bond issue and its immediate use

instead of waiting for the next session of the legislature, two years

hence.

There have been objections advanced against the enabling acts at

this particular time, but in the interests of progress and development the

sooner the road improvements—if

they are to be made—are started

and completed the better for all the people. There is nothing to be gained

by waiting two years to make a

start in a proposed progressive

movement, and the proposition to

either adjourn the present legislature until after election, or call a

special session is only good business.

Why wait two years to start a much

needed work when it can be done in

much shorter time?

AN AUSPICIOUS EVENT.

The dedication of St. Jerome's new

Catholic church tomorrow marks an

auspicious event in the history of

Charleroi. Not only is it a triumph

and an achievement for the local congregation, but it indicates that the

religious and devotional spirit of the

community is in the ascendancy, and

in the growth and promotion of that

spirit the new structure will wield a

mighty influence for good.

As an enduring monument for

elevating and broadening the lives of

all who come under its canopy of influence, the new church becomes a

potent factor in the development of Charleroi. In a material way it also adds to the appearance and beauty

of the town, and its architectural

beauty and permanency contributes in

no inconsiderable degree to the sta-

bility and prestige of the Magic City.

Every new structure of this nature

adds to the value of property in the community and makes an important

contribution to the general welfare of the community.

It is not difficult to hear funny

things in New York, wherever you

go if you listen and keep your eyes

open. Here is a conversation that I

overheard in a restaurant in New York between a fussy diner and a

kind waiter, says a writer in the New York Sun.

"Say, waiter."

"Yes, sir."

"I want a dozen blue points."

"Yes, sir."

"Oh, waiter."

"Yes, sir."

"Steamed, you know."

"Yes, sir."

"Oh, waiter."

"Yes, sir."

"You will see that they are not too much."

No, sir."

"Oh, and waiter."

"No, sir."

"And, sir—asked the waiter

frankly, exasperated.

"Yes, sir."

"Would you like them with or

without?"

"What?"

"Pearls," said the waiter and dis-

appeared.

"Nat Goodwin was attending a

vaudeville performance in some theatre when a performer came along

who was giving imitations of celeb-

rities. He looked up at Nat Good-

win in the box, and said to the audience, "I shall be very glad now to

give you an imitation of our foremost

American comedian, Nat Goodwin."

Mr. Goodwin appeared to be some-

what embarrassed, which added very

much to the laughter and amusement

of the audience. After the perform-

er had given his imitation, he looked

up at Mr. Goodwin in the box, and

said directly to him:

"How was that, Nat?"

"Well, one of us is rotten," said

Goodwin while shouts of laughter

followed the rally.

We Put the "I" in Printing

INNUMERABLE opportunities await the wise man who incorporates brains in his printing.

INDIVIDUALITY can be as well expressed in printed matter as in clothes.

IDEAS that impel attention and improve business are always best presented in good ink work.

IMPORTANT communications imbued with that intangible something which incites interest, initiates investigations, and instigates immediate inquiries, demand immaculate printing.

INK imagination is not an innovation in this print shop. Ideals in illuminative inking and incisive impression are high here, but our imprint does not increase the inexpensiveness of our product.

Hadn't Done So Badly.
"I might have married a millionaire," declared Everywoman. "One of my old schoolmates is now one."
"And several of your schoolmates are working right in this town for $10 a week," retorted Everyman, "while one of them is in jail. I guess in marrying a chap getting $1,500 a year your average is fairly good." And then Everybody set up a howl and they had to stop quarreling to attend to him.—Pittsburg Post.

Concrete an Old Story.
Rome was not built in a day, nor built as fast as Tammanytown, nor built in structural steel, but it turned out that most of Rome's mighty structures, temples, circuses, baths, aqueducts, were built in concrete, not reinforced with iron and steel, as we build now, but a good quality of sand stone and cement nevertheless. On this powerful central core of cement was fitted an ornamental facing of finest marble.

Too Good to Lose.
is broken, are you going to make Blanche send back your letters? Harry—"You bet I am. I worked hard thinking out those letters; they're worth using again."

Scientific Fact Established.
A number of rabbits upon whom coffee was tried to determine the effect of the caffeine it contained died, proving beyond a doubt that coffee never was intended as food for rabbits.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Made His Blessing Retroactive.
The father of a family who had been striving to bring up his children in the way they should go, was much annoyed at his son's uncouth habit of helping himself to a few bites before grace had been said. The stereotyped form called for: "A blessing on what we are about to eat," but one occasion being particularly exasperating, he astounded the young man by adding to his petition, "and on that which has already been eaten."

Fully Explained.
Every now and again some individual arises to tell us Why We Are, and What We Are, and How We Know Why We Are, and How We Are What We Know, and What We Would Be if We Weren't, and What, Precisely, Areness is also Wereness, and Why We Aren't What We Mightn't Have Been if We Weren't, and other simple and entrancing facts. Such an individual is called a philosopher.—Bulletin, Sidney.

Will Destroy Moths.
To destroy moths, eggs and larvae in a closet: Place a brick on the floor of the closet and on this a tin or iron pan. Heat a brick until it becomes very hot and then put it in the pan. Pour hot, strong vinegar on this brick, then close the door and keep it closed for 24 hours. The steam from the vinegar will destroy any live thing that may be in the closet.

Little Doubt About It.
Married a month, a young man told the magistrate that his wife had done the following things: "Torn up the marriage certificate, pawned the ring, torn up her wedding dress, assaulted him. She followed him to court, he added, but he managed to dodge her. The Clerk: "You took her for better or worse and you seem to have got the worse."

Specialists Recommend Yawning.
In the opinion of learned specialists no one can be healthy unless he or she does a certain amount of yawning. When you yawn you expel from the lungs a lot of superfluous air; the breathing muscles of both the chest and the throat are strengthened by yawning.

His Fear.
"Weren't you afraid to go down stairs in the dark last night?" asked a woman of her little son recently. "Yes I was a little afraid," answered the boy. "But what were you afraid of?" asked the mother. "I'm," said the boy, "I was afraid there wouldn't be any doughnuts."

To Preserve Home of George Fox.
Swarthmoor hall, near Ulverston, Lancashire (Eng.) formerly the home of George Fox, founder of the Society of Friends, was bought at Ulverston, a short time ago, on behalf of the English members of the society for £5,250. His writing desk was bought for 26 guineas.

The Merry Advertiser.
Who says there is no more any genuine English humor? A portwine dealer in Earl's court neighborhood, London, displays this on a window sign: "When visiting Shakespeare's England, eat England's Bacon."

And So It Goes in Life.
"A girl," remarks Mack Cretcher, "must have dolls and ribbons and lots of fancy things to play with. A boy can have a pretty good time with nothing but a toad, a grasshopper and a few angle worms."

Perhaps a Tragic Comedy.
A writer once said that the world is a comedy to those who think, a tragedy to those who feel. He doesn't say what it is to the fellow who tries to take a wide garbage can through a narrow alleyway.—Satire.

For Tired Feet.
When your feet ache, caused by long standing exercise them by rising first to the toes, then on the heels, in a rocking motion for a few times. This was advised by a specialist.—Woman's Home Companion.

Man's Eating.
One man likes to be made a fuss over, another likes to be let alone and a third likes his mind diverted. But in all cases have something good for him to eat, whatever kind he is.

Easy.
Young Widow—"Did you have any trouble getting Jack to propose?" Girl Friend—"No, dear, I told him you were after him."—Boston Transcript.

Daily Thought.
One principal point of good breeding is to suit our behavior to the three several degrees of men—our superiors, our equals and those below us.—Swift.

Difference.
The only difference between a caprice and a life-long passion is that the caprice lasts a little longer.—The Tatler.

Producing Optimism.
A very good remedy for anybody's pessimism is being able to pay his bills.—New York Press.

GOOD OLD AMERICAN NAMES

"Monarchs" Seen in News of Day indicate New York is Our Foremost European Capital.

In the news of one day in New York we find that a man by the name of Isidore Steinberg pleaded guilty to bigamy in the court of a judge named Rosalsky; that a youth named Tumshelsky was drowned; a man named Blau was convicted of keeping a disorderly resort; a girl named Anna Cloune was a principal witness in a murder case; a Madame Le Comte figured in domestic sensation; a certain Miss Zella brought a breach of promise case; a Governor named Sulzer sent a message to the legislature; Hannes Kolehmainen was the star of a footrace; another runner named Abel Kiviat made a fast trial spin; and a Mr. Max Hochstet figured in a hotel scandal.

The names of Klonz, Remitz, Brost, Gaw, Levi, Harberg, Golla, Schenkel, Stovell, Meniak, Dalldorf, Jensen, Yohman, Stappers, Lococo, Hulse, Maczich, Wirsing, Wexler, Szabo, Tietelbaum, Trifari, Carnas, Loew, Brandus, Mahoney, Braun, Kimmelman, Levi, Sarlin, Trosky, Mullan and Beubel are the first to assail the eye on turning to a page of advertisements.

In another generation or two these will be good old American names. Meanwhile New York will continue to be our foremost European capital.

SAYS ALL WOMEN ARE LIARS

German Diplomat, Who Got the "Mitten," Declares Fair Sex Deficient Morally.

"All women are liars and are deficient in their sense of moral duty."

This and more is the opinion of Baron Hermann von Kuhlmann of Bavaria, unmarried and attached to German embassy at Peking, who arrived on the Chivo Maru recently.

According to fellow passengers, the baron formed his views on the voyage when his attentions to Miss Katherine Enright of Chicago did not meet with hearty response.

"A woman cannot recognize the same moral responsibility as a man," said the baron. "No marriage can remain a happy one for more than a year. By that time a man will lose faith in his wife."

Then, turning to Miss Enright, the baron said:

"We have had a pleasant trip. But to have you for a wife if I could—never! You are too energetic."

Returning to the interview, the baron continued:

"Woman is illogical and untrustworthy. She changes her mind too frequently. Woman has no feeling requiring her to tell the truth. In Germany a man and wife are comrades, but in America—never. Here the women are proud and selfish and the men suffer for it."

Advice About Reading.

Be sure, then, to read no mean books, shun the spawn of the press in the gossip of the hour. Do not read what you shall learn, without asking, in the street and the train. Dr. Johnson said he "always went into stately shops," and good travelers stop at the best hotels; for though they cost more they do not cost much more, and there is the good company and the best information. In like manner the scholar knows that the famous books contain, first and last, the best thoughts and facts. The three practical rules, then, which I have to offer are (1) Never read any book that is not a year old. (2) Never read any but famed books. (3) Never read any but what you like.—Emerson.

Community in New.

At a friend's southern hunting lodge his wife has learned that her "ring-up" on the telephone is accompanied by the click of receivers all along the line. Every one is obviously listening to what she says. On one occasion a telegram was telephoned to the lodge, and the following day, when her husband met a rural neighbor on the road, the latter drew rein to converse.

"Mr. Grey," said he, "I didn't catch the first part of that telegram we got yesterday."

Mr. Grey accordingly enlightened his ignorance forthwith.—New York World.

Farmer's Suggestion.

A Florida farmer who was raising strawberries for the market sent a shipment to New York and the commission merchant wrote back that the berries were too ripe, consequently poor prices and small return checks, so next time the grower picked them earlier and the results were about the same, as the New York man said they were too green for the market; so the next shipment the man pulled up the plants by the roots, packed them in boxes and said, "You can pick them when just right for your particular market."

Made Dogs and Rats Fight.

For keeping premises in Soar Lane, Leicester, for dog and rat fighting, Walter Manship was at Leicester yesterday fined £5 under the protection of animals act, and for assisting him Ernest Manship and Albert Martin of Leicester, Joseph Ward of Hinckley and James Mason of Birmingham were fined £1 each. It was stated that on Boxing day terrier dogs were placed in a rat pit and a number of rats were killed. All the competing dogs were badly bitten and in one competition two rats were seen hanging from the bleeding jaws of a dog.—London Mail.

They have never contributed a cent to furthering the interests of our town.

Every cent received by them from this community is a direct loss to our merchants.

In almost every case their prices can be met right here, without delay in passing goods and the possibility of mistakes in filling orders.

But—

The natural human bent is to buy where goods are cheapest. Local pride is usually secondary in the game of life as played today.

Therefore

Mr. Merchant and Business Man, meet your competition with their own weapons.

resuming the vaudeville program for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, at the Palace Theatre this week are the "Lonbrake Trio," high class entertainers. This trio features Arthur Lonbrake, the popular song writer whose songs have been played and sung at the Palace. Some of his biggest hits are "The Preacher and the Bear," "Cutie, Who Tied Your Tie," and "Oh, You Beautiful Doll." Others on the program are Vernon and Clare in flute and piccolo selection and slight of hand. In calo selection and slight of hand. In said to be in the Kellar class. The program is a strong one, and all the principals excel in their respective specialties. With the Pathe Weekly and a change of moving pictures nightly, the repertoire is most entertaining. A matinee will be held Saturday.

THE COYLE—CHARLEROI

Two two-reel dramas, with a three reel and two reel for Saturday, are the leading features at the Coyle Theatre this week. The two reel pictures were "The Smuggler's Daughter," a thrilling story with a wild and rugged sea coast setting, and "The Northern Spy," not the apple of that name, but a sensational civil war drama, in which some stirring adventures are encountered. There was plenty of wild and free action in both of these dramas, which appeal to the adventurous spirits that are as keen today for the stirring life of the open as in the days of chivalry. "The Sheriff's Rivals," "Miss Nobody," and "Bozo Arrives," were some of the leading dramas. The latter was the dream of a hobo, which showed that even the tattered knight of the road is not without his dream of romance. "Billy's First Quarrel" and "The Black Smallop Scare" were among the comedies of the week that made a hit. "Petty's Bandit," "A Woman Loved," and "The Whole Truth" were some of the best of the sentimental and melodramatic films. Saturday's bill is "The Tell of War" in three reels, and "Out of the Depths," in two reels, making five reels in all.

THE STAR—CHARLEROI

Surging in the motion picture dramas that makes the Star Theatre a most popular resort, the schedule this week had its usual repertoire of good features. Chief among these was "The Gray Sentinel," a thrilling Broncho war drama. Others were "A Renegade's Heart," "When Ghost Meets Ghost," and "The Night Riders." The last was a sensational drama founded on the night riding raids in the "tobacco war" in Kentucky, where the producers tried to break the monopoly that mult them out of a part of their lawful profits. "In Those Good Old Days" was a tale of the time of Queen Elizabeth, when chivalry and court etiquette played such an important part in English life. "On Fortune's Wheel," is a thrilling Kay Bee with most sensational features that is booked for Friday. Manager Tom B. Cowan has a line on all the good and late films of the independent circuit, and his patrons are always assured of something new and novel. The Saturday bill for both matinee and night is unusually attractive.

Woman.

To think of a part one little woman can play in the life of a man, so that to renounce her may be a very good imitation of heroism, and to win her may be a discipline!—George Elliot.

Just the Trouble.

"Opportunity really knocks at many a door." "Then why don't more of us succeed better?" "The trouble is that opportunity wants us to go to work."—Pittsburg Post.

Good Tip.

"I should like to secure an audience with your wife." "If you will consent to be the audience it ought to be easy enough."—Houston Post.

As One Who Knows.

Fig—Does your grocer sell his apples by the barrel? Fig—Well, they come in barrels, but what he sells them by is the top layer.

Sublime Thoughts.

"For all our penny wisdom, for all our slavery to habit, it is not to be denied that all men have sublime thoughts."—Emerson.

Course Not.

"Did he kiss you when he proposed? Certainly; I wouldn't consider any but sealed proposals."

IT'S A MISTAKE

Made By Many Charleroi Residents.

Many people in a misguided effort to get rid of kidney backache, rely on plasters, liniments and other makeshifts. The right treatment is kidney treatment and a remarkably recommended kidney medicine is Doan's Kidney Pills. Charleroi is no exception.

The proof is at your very door. The following is an experience typical of the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Charleroi.

Mrs. Robert Coulter, 207 Prospect Ave., Charleroi, Pa., says: "Some years ago my son had the measles and on recovering, I noticed that his kidneys were very weak. He had no control over the kidney secretions and this was especially annoying at night. I had often seen Doan's Kidney Pills highly advertised in the local papers and was finally induced to get a supply at Piper Bros. Drug Store. I had my son use them and before long he was greatly benefited."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

HELP FOR WORKING GIRLS

Two Girls Tell Story of Their Illness and How They Found Relief.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better." —Miss AMELIA JAQUILLARD, 618 Seventh Street, New Orleans, La.

St. Clair, Pa. — "My mother was alarmed because my periods were suppressed and I had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them." —Miss ESTELLA MAGUIRE, 110 Thwing St., Saint Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
